

LEARN CUED SPEECH ONLINE IN 4 WEEKS

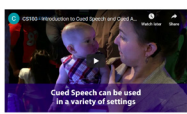

CS101 - Introduction to Cued American English

An Instructor-Led Online Course for Beginners

Our easy-to-navigate course teaches all of the consonant handshapes, vowel placements, and rules of Cued American English. Learn the entire system in 4 weeks and start cueing!

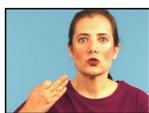

CS101 transforms the CS100 self-study curriculum into a 4-week instructor-led course that includes weekly 1.5 hour Zoom sessions with an NCSA Certified Instructor.

Overview: What is Cued Speech? Why Cue?

- WHAT IS CUED SPEECH?
- HANDSHAPES: CONSONANTS
- HAND PLACEMENTS: VOWELS
- COMBINING HANDSHAPES AND HAND PLACEMENTS

14 Lessons on handshapes and hand placements

/r/

Ray

Many Practice Videos to Check your Understanding

tutor

- Cue Notation
- 5c5m
- Funetik Spelling
- /tue, tur/

Scan code to register

You will retain access to all course materials to review and practice for a year from the date of purchase.

Choose a section of the course offered at a time that works for you!

www.cuecollege.org/new-courses-learn-to-cue/

EARN ASHA CEU's
SMALL CLASS SIZES

Introductory
.11 ASHA CEUs

ASHA CE
APPROVED PROVIDER

Illinois
Speech-Language-Hearing
Association

Initial offerings of CS101 will be led by NCSA-Certified Instructor, Sandy Mose tick. Financial Disclosure: Sandy Mose tick will receive financial compensation as instructor of the course. Nonfinancial Disclosure: Sandy Mose tick is the founder and director of the Cue College program of AGBMS-AEHI. She raised a child using Cued Speech.

CS100 is a collaboration between Cue College, Deaf Children's Literacy Project (a program of the National Cued Speech Association), and Institute for Disabilities Research and Training, Inc.