

LEARN CUED SPEECH ONLINE IN 4 WEEKS

CS101 - Introduction to Cued American English

An Instructor-Led Online Course for Beginners

Our easy-to-navigate course teaches all of the consonant handshapes, vowel placements, and rules of Cued American English. Learn the entire system in 4 weeks and start cueing!

CS101 transforms the CS100 self-study curriculum into a 4-week instructor-led course that includes weekly 1.5 hour Zoom sessions with an NCSA Certified Instructor.

Overview: What is Cued Speech? Why cue?  	14 Lessons on handshapes and hand placements   /r/ Ray	Many practice videos to check your understanding
---	--	---

Scan code to register

You will retain access to all course materials to review and practice for a year from the date of purchase.

Choose an offering at a date and time that works for you!

www.cuecollege.org/new-courses-learn-to-cue/

*EARN RID CEUs*

*EARN ASHA CEUs*

*EARN IL EI CREDITS*

Initial offerings of CS101 will be led by NCSA-Certified Instructor, Sandy Mosectick. Financial Disclosure: Sandy Mosectick will receive financial compensation as instructor of the course. Non financial Disclosure: Sandy Mosectick is the founder and president of Cue College. She raised a child using Cued Speech.

CS100 is a collaboration between Cue College, Deaf Children's Literacy Project (a program of the National Cued Speech Association), and Institute for Disabilities Research and Training, Inc.

*Cue College is an Illinois not-for-profit corporation, an affiliate of the NCSA.

Questions: Contact Cue College: info@cuecollege.org